PRODUCT LIABILITY

Sometimes, consumers are injured by the products they purchase. Products liability is an area of law that seeks to hold manufacturers of products that have injured individuals responsible for the injuries their defective products caused. These defective products range from medical devices to vehicles to diapers and many others. Gustafson Gluek PLLC represents consumers against the manufacturers of these defective products and has been able to achieve sizable recoveries on behalf of injured individuals. Below are some representative product liability cases that Gustafson Gluek is currently litigating:

Gustafson Gluek was one of the counsel representing the plaintiff, Spine Solutions, Inc. and Synthes Spine So., L.P.P., in a patent litigation against Medtronic Sofamor Danek, Inc. and Medtronic Sofamor Donek, USA. The patent at issue in that case involved technology relating to spinal disc implants. This case went to trial in November 2008 and a jury verdict was returned in favor of our clients. The jury found willful infringements and awarded both lost profits and reasonable royalty damages to our clients.

In re Wellbutrin SR Antitrust Litigation (E.D. Pa.)

Gustafson Gluek played an integral role in this pharmaceutical class action. The firm represented direct purchasers of Wellbutrin SR, who alleged that defendant GlaxoSmithKline defrauded the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and filed sham lawsuits against its competitors, which delayed the availability of the generic version of Wellbutrin SR to consumers. As a result of this delay, Plaintiffs alleged that they paid more for Wellbutrin SR than they would have if the generic version had been available to them. Gustafson Gluek was actively involved in the investigation, discovery, motion practice, and trial preparation for this case and served an essential role in the mediation that resulted in a $49 million settlement to the direct purchasers.

Pro Bono & Community

Gustafson Gluek recognizes that those who provide legal services are in a unique position to assist others. The Firm and its members strongly believe in giving back to the community by providing legal services to those in need. The law can make an immense difference in an individual's life; however, effectively navigating the legal system is not an easy task. Providing pro bono legal services promotes access to justice, by giving counsel to those who otherwise would not have it.

In keeping with this commitment to providing representation to those who otherwise do not have access to representation, Dan Gustafson was one of four lawyers who helped develop and implement the Minnesota Pro Se Project for the Minnesota Chapter of the Federal Bar Association. Because the Federal Bar Association did not have funding for the project, Gustafson Gluek volunteered to administer the Project during its inaugural year, starting in May 2009, devoting extensive resources to matching pro se litigants with volunteer counsel. In 2010, Chief Judge Michael Davis of the District of Minnesota awarded Dan Gustafson a Distinguished Pro Bono Service Award for "rising to the Court's challenge of bringing the idea of the Pro Se Project to fruition and nurturing the Project into its current form." Gustafson Gluek has continued representing clients through the Pro Se Project since that time.
